

Dear Comissioners,

It is impossible for you to mistake that there is a serious concern about monoploy media ownership in this country. More public debate is necessary before such a monumental assault on the first amendment. "Freedom of the Press" is to be protected at all costs.